                    ...ONLY SIXTEEN... by Sam Cooke
                    ------------------.............

CAPO 1st FRET

Key: Ab

Intro:

D13

Verse 1:

            G          Em     C          D     Am7 D7       G
She... was only six-teen, only six-teen, I  loved her so.
     G          Em        C        D        Am7        D7        G
But she was too young to fall in love, and I was too young to know.

Verse 2:

       G               Em        C             D
We'd laugh and we'd sing, and do the little things,
Am7    D7             G
  That made my heart glow.
       G         Em        C        D        Am7        D7        G
But she was too young to fall in love, and I was too young to know.

Bridge 1:

Am7         D7        G          Em
 Why did I give my heart so fast?
    Am7         D7        G
It never will happen a-gain.
     Am7      D7   G          Em
But I was a mere lad of six-teen;
A7                          D7
 I've aged a year since then.

Verse 3:

        G          Em     C        D     Am7    D7              G
She was only six-teen, only six-teen, with eyes that would glow.
     G         Em        C        D        Am7        D7         G
But she was too young to fall in love, and I was too young to know.

Bridge 2:

      Am7           D7        G          Em
(Then why did you give your heart so fast?)
    Am7         D7        G
It never will happen a-gain.
     Am7       D7   G          Em
(But you were a mere lad of six-teen);
A7                          D7
 I've aged a year since then.

She was only six-teen, only six-teen, with eyes that would glow.
     G          Em       C        D         Am7       D7        G
But she was too young to fall in love, and I was too young to know.

     G          Em       C        D         Am7       D7        G

G            Em        C       D         Am7          D7        G
 She was too young to fall in love, and I was too young to know.
